

How to get to The Tin Soldier

We are looking forward to welcoming you to The Tin Soldier, BOP's winter show, at The Studio, 22 Potterrow, Edinburgh, EH8 9BL.

Currently there are building works next to the venue that make it trickier to get to, so we have compiled this document to help with your journey. If you have any questions please contact The Festival Theatre on 0131 629 5000.

Doors open at 1pm for 2pm shows and 6pm for 7pm shows. If you wish to use the pre-show access information please come ahead of the show times.

How to get to The Studio

The theatre is on Potterrow. Due to building works blocking pavements it is ONLY ACCESSIBLE FROM CORNER OF POTTERROW AND EXIT OF NICOLSON SQUARE (MARSHALL STREET). This route is marked by a dotted line on the map below and leads to a snowflake to mark the theatre.

Car Parking

Pay and display spaces on Chambers Street. Car park Niddry Street. Drop off outside theatre must be pre-arranged and is only possible for groups and individuals with access requirements – please discuss with the Box Office.

There are very limited parking spaces in the Festival Theatre courtyard for audience members with access requirements and Blue Badges (marked BB on map). A space can be booked in advance by calling the Stage Door on 0131 662 1112. They will ask for your name, registration and which performance or event you are attending.

You will need to access the Studio Theatre by walking around from the courtyard onto Potterrow and through the access route described below.
